

Are you feeling lucky? Enter our book giveaway!

We have three copies of Critical Multicultural Practice in Social Work to give away thanks to the generosity of book publisher Allen & Unwin. Three winners will be chosen and each will receive one copy of the book.

This excellent book offers insights into the key concepts of identity, culture, diversity and superdiversity. It explores the changing nature of multicultural practice in Australia and looks at changing demographics, refugee and asylum, race and racism and cultural identity. Indigenous perspectives and the relationship with multicultural practice are also examined.

This giveaway is open to ACWA members only.

Guideline 5 of the ACWA Practice Guidelines states 'a community worker works within diverse communities and should demonstrate in all of her or his professional practice an understanding and sensitivity to diversity in all forms...'

Tell us in a paragraph how this book might help you meet guideline 5. Email your entry to info@acwa.org.au before 5pm, Friday 14 June 2019 using the subject line: Book giveaway. Include your full name and postal address.

The winning entries may be published. If you do not want your full name made public, please let us know in your email. We are happy to use your first name only. Good luck!
