

ACWA Appeals Policy

A person who has submitted an application for assessment of their qualifications for migration purposes or for membership purposes has the right to lodge a review and appeal with the National Executive of ACWA in relation to a decision made by the ACWA in relation to their application for assessment. Such an application should be made in writing to the National Executive at the address below within 28 days of receiving the decision from ACWA which is to be reviewed or appealed. An appeal will attract a fee of $150 to cover re-assessment and administrative cost. The fee is payable before an appeal assessment commences. The application can be made to the following:

ACWA National Secretary
PO Box 42
FLINDERS LANE VIC 80